

Tips for Success in Online Classes

Stay updated

At the start of each day, check your email and eCampus course page for any announcements.

Don't underestimate online classes

It requires more discipline and learning compared to in-person classes.

Avoid multi-tasking

Resist the temptation to look at other websites during Zoom classes.

Dedicate a workspace

Create a good working and studying environment.

Set boundaries

Talk with the people you live with about creating a situation that respects your study space.

Take a break

Giving your brain time to rest is just as important as putting in the study and class hours.

Be courteous

Moving all classes online is likely new for a lot of instructors.

Visit virtual hours

Attend your instructor's office hours to ask questions.
