Tips for Success in Online Classes

Stay updated
At the start of each day, check your email and eCampus course page for any announcements.

Avoid multi-tasking
Resist the temptation to look at other websites during Zoom classes.

Set boundaries
Talk with the people you live with about creating a situation that respects your study space.

Be courteous
Moving all classes online is likely new for a lot of instructors.

Don’t underestimate online classes
It requires more discipline and learning compared to in-person classes.

Dedicate a workspace
Create a good working and studying environment.

Take a break
Giving your brain time to rest is just as important as putting in the study and class hours.

Visit virtual hours
Attend your instructor’s office hours to ask questions.
