The Arab World: A Long View on Renewal, Violence, and Democratic Change

Dr. Shafeeq N. Ghabra
Date: Monday 17 April 2017
Time: 04:00-5:20 pm
Place: Lecture Hall 144

ABSTRACT:
Understanding the Arab world needs a long view. Nothing in the region is unusual when compared with the modern history of other nations: war, dictatorship, extremism, stability next to instability. In 2011, the social political contract was challenged. Without a new contract and rearrangement in the social political structures in the Arab world, stability will suffer endlessly.
